

Stephanie Lo

Vice Chairman & ULI Trustee, Shui On Land

Ms. Stephanie LO is Vice Chairman at Shui On Land [272 HK], a leading urban regeneration solution provider in China. The Company offers a diverse portfolio in top tier cities across China with two core business segments: property development and asset management. Stephanie is also the Vice Chairman of Shui On Xintiandi, the commercial property investment and management arm of Shui On Land. Stephanie takes the lead on corporate development, business and product innovation of the Company and assists the Chairman to define and execute on the long-term strategy for the Company. Stephanie joined Shui On Land in 2012. Prior to joining the Company, Stephanie worked for various architecture and design firms in New York City, amongst which was Studio Sofield, a firm well-known for its capability in retail design and hospitality. Stephanie currently serves as a member of the Fourteenth Shanghai Committee of Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference. She is selected as a Young Global Leader of the World Economic Forum in 2020. She is also a Member of Asia Pacific Leadership Council of The Nature Conservancy. Stephanie was appointed as a Non-executive Director of SOCAM Development Limited in January 2019. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Architecture from Wellesley College in Massachusetts.