

Mary HussBay Area Market President and Publisher San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley Business Journal

Mary Huss is Bay Area market president and publisher of the San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley Business Journal.

Silicon Valley Business Journal and San Francisco Business Times are part of American City Business Journals, with 40 multi-media business journals serving local markets across the country. In her tenure, the Business Times has grown to be one of the largest and most profitable markets in the Business Journals portfolio.

Mary began her career with Business Journals on the startup team that launched the St. Louis Business Journal and a number of other business journals in the early 1980's. Before coming to San Francisco, she was publisher of the Philadelphia Business Journal. She has been a reporter, editor, circulation director, advertising sales director, and publisher.

Earlier in her career she was a writer for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and before that, was founding editor of a successful weekly alternative newspaper in St. Louis, The Riverfront Times.

Mary has a Bachelor of Journalism degree from University of Missouri-Columbia.

Mary is currently serving a two-year term as Board Chair of the Bay Area Council. She is on the boards of the Bay Area Council Economic Institute, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and Silicon Valley Leadership Group. She is on the executive board and board of San Francisco State University Foundation, and the Commonwealth Club board. She is past Board Chair of San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and of PBWC.