

Chamberlin YLG Public & Non-Profit Sector Fellowship

The Chamberlin YLG Public & Non-profit Sector Fellowship Program provides the highest level exposure to the ULI experience for exemplary Young Leaders Group members (age 35 and below), while seeding ULI with tomorrow's industry leaders. Through this program, YLG members will be provided with a passport to participate in ULI events and educational activities at a very formative point in their careers.

One YLG member employed in either the public or non-profit sector will be selected each year for a two-year appointment, by the Chamberlin YLG Public & Non-profit Sector Fellowship Selection Committee.

Fellowship Details:

In addition to receiving the opportunity to be integrated into the vast ULI network of real estate professionals, all Fellows receive the following benefits:

- Two-year ULI Full Membership.
- Registration to attend ULI Spring and Fall Meetings for two years, including travel and lodging.
- Registration to one additional domestic ULI conference annually for two years, including travel and lodging.
- Admission to a national Product Council, its meetings, and its functions for two years.
- Access to a mentor who will advise and guide them through ULI and the profession.

Selection Criteria:

Fellows must have:

- Demonstrated a passion for real estate as a career objective through their profession, extracurricular activities and/or past pursuit of real estate course work.
- A willingness and desire to commit to active participation in ULI meetings; and
- Employment in the public or non-profit sectors related to land use in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Application Requirements:

1. A current resume
2. Two letters of recommendation
3. A completed Application Form
4. Two (2) of the following three (3) essay questions answered. Essays should be no more than two pages in length.
 - Why is a ULI Fellowship important to you?

San Francisco
