Chamberlin Graduate Student Fellowship

The Graduate Student Fellowship Program provides the highest level of exposure to the ULI experience for exemplary graduate students of real estate and design programs, while seeding ULI with tomorrow's industry leaders. Through this program, students will be provided with a passport to participate in ULI events and educational activities at a very formative point in their careers.

One student pursuing an MBA with a Certificate in Real Estate from the Haas School of Business and one student pursuing a Masters Degree from the College of Environmental Design (CED) will be selected each year for a two-year appointment, starting in the final year of study, by the Graduate Student Fellowship Selection Committee.

Fellowship Details:

In addition to receiving the opportunity to be integrated into the vast ULI network of real estate professionals, all Graduate Student Fellows receive the following benefits:

- Two-year ULI Full Membership.
- Registration to attend ULI Spring and Fall Meetings for two years, including travel and lodging.
- Registration to one additional domestic ULI conference annually for two years, including travel and lodging.
- Admission to a national Product Council, its meetings, and its functions for two years.
- Access to a mentor who will advise and guide them through ULI and the profession.

Selection Criteria:

Graduate Student Fellows must have:

- Demonstrated a passion for real estate as a career objective through the pursuit of academic Real Estate course work and a Real Estate-related internship, active participation in the Berkeley Real Estate Club and / or participation on a Real Estate competition team.
- A willingness and desire to commit to active participation in ULI meetings.
- Completed the first year of study at the Haas School of Business MBA program and the pursuit of the Real Estate Certificate, or at the College of Environmental Design (CED).

Application Requirements:

1. A current resume
2. An official university transcript for graduate work at U.C. Berkeley.
3. Two letters of recommendation: one from a U.C. Berkeley faculty or staff person and a second from a professional or personal reference.
4. A completed Application Form

5. Two (2) of the following three (3) essay questions answered. Essays should be no more than two pages in length.

    o Why is a ULI Fellowship important to you?

    o In your opinion, what is the greatest challenge that real estate and development professionals of your generation will face in the future? What are your ideas for overcoming those issues?

    o Professionally, where do you see yourself in 5 years?

Application Logistics:

Applications for the ULI Graduate Student Fellowship must be received by 11:59 pm (PST) on Friday, May 26, 2023. Applications can be emailed to Abigail Franklin, ACRE Program Manager at the Haas School of Business, at abigail_franklin@haas.berkeley.edu.

The Selection Committee will make its decision based on the applications submitted. The fellowship process will follow the University of California at Berkeley guidelines and will not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age or disability. The Selection Committee may request finalists be available for a 30-minute interview or phone interview. Selected Fellows should be prepared to attend the ULI Fall Meeting in Los Angeles on October 30 through November 2, 2023. All expenses will be paid by the Fellowship. Any questions can be directed to Abigail Franklin, at abigail_franklin@haas.berkeley.edu.
