1:55 – 2:20 PM – ULI SF Downtown Advisory Services Panel 3 Years Later

Three years ago, ULI's Advisory Services Panel brought local and national experts together to imagine a new future for downtown San Francisco. Its recommendations offered a shared vision for public spaces, entertainment, and the partnerships needed to move downtown forward. This opening conversation brings together members of the original panel to reflect on how the effort came together, the ideas that shaped it, and how that vision set the stage for the work happening today.

Speakers: Eric Tao, Managing Partner, L37 Development (moderator)
Kate Collignon, Managing Partner, HR&A Advisors
Geeti Silwal, Americas Cities, Planning and Design Leader, ARUP

2:20 – 2:30 PM – Short Break

2:30 – 4:00 PM – Downtown San Francisco: It's Happening!

Downtown San Francisco is in the midst of a comeback. Lively streets and plazas, new businesses opening up, transformative public realm projects underway, surging office demand, and new housing developments in the pipeline are all signs of an undeniable resurgence. This panel brings together some of the community leaders behind all this - from the public, private and philanthropic sectors - to reflect on the challenges, successes, and critical partnerships that have led to this moment, and what lies ahead.
