

As a partner at Lowe Engineers, Sally Riker has dedicated her time to a field that fosters the foundation of modern society. With 20 years of experience in the A/E/C consulting industry, Sally has worked to push past boundaries, and exceed expectations, while building and maintaining quintessential relationships that have resulted in substantial growth for Lowe Engineers. Sally was unanimously appointed equity partner in 2006 and is currently the Director of Business Development, Marketing, and Human Resources. Sally is a Fellow in the Society of American Engineers (SAME) and is currently on the Academy of Fellows as a Vice Chair. She was elected and served on the National Board as well as the Savannah Post Board and has served in all positions during her 20-year on-going membership. Sally also serves on the Council for Quality Growth Board of Directors, Urban Land Institute (ULI) Atlanta Advisory Board, Chair and Co-chaired Center for Leadership, and served as Chair and Co-chair for the Women's Leadership Initiative for ULI Atlanta. Sally graduated from CREW Leadership in 2018, Urban Land Institute's Center for Leadership in 2014, Emerging Leaders Alliance in 2013, and the ARC's Regional Leadership Institute in 2006. In the past few years Sally has been recognized for her professional excellence with honors including: one of the top 100 Women to know in Georgia in AEC for 2020, 2019 and 2018, and named Georgia Trends 40 under 40: Georgia's Best & Brightest in 2009. Sally is also an active guest speaker and is an author of published articles relating to the A/E/C industry.