

In her role as Vice President of Resident Services at Columbia Residential, LLC, Jennifer Owens assumes all responsibilities for the effective planning and management of supportive services delivered to residents at all Columbia Residential housing communities and for the growth and development of the Resident Services Team. Jennifer is also the founder of Dash and Dwell, LLC, an affiliated company that provides relocation services to mixed income housing owners for the purpose of ensuring residents affected as a direct result of an acquisition, rehabilitation, or redevelopment project are not permanently displaced and are treated fairly and equitably under federal and state relocation policies.

In addition, Jennifer has over fifteen years of experience in developing culturally diverse community-led programs and building community partnership networks for social service organizations. Jennifer served as a United States Peace Corps Volunteer in Ecuador from 2001 - 2003.

ORGANIZATIONS

- DeKalb County Continuum of Care, Decatur, GA
- Sub-Saharan Education Project, Atlanta, GA
- Atlanta Area Returned Peace Corps Volunteers, Atlanta, GA

EDUCATION

- Master of Social Work, Georgia State University
- Bachelor of Arts, Anthropology & International Affairs University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH