

Jodi Selvey specializes in Office Tenant Representation. She works with her clients to provide strategic planning and solutions to their real estate needs. Ms. Selvey offers over 31 years of comprehensive real estate experience which includes leasing a number of corporate headquarters locations, office building sales, site selection, restructuring of leases and providing detailed financial analysis. Jodi executes in a creative way to solve complicated transactions, whether she's asked to sell a difficult building, meet a nonprofit organization's financial benchmarks, or seek out non-traditional solutions for a client. Additionally, Ms. Selvey works with national clients on multi-city assignments, thereby creating a single point of contact for all their real estate needs across the country.

Ms. Selvey has been involved in fundraising for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and Atlanta Ronald McDonald House, where she co-chaired the annual Brookhaven Tour of Homes for four years. She is also involved with Habitat for Humanity—serving on the fundraising committee and as a builder for the Marist Women Build since 2005. Ms. Selvey is very involved in her alma mater, where she chaired the UGA Parents Council in 2016 and 2017, was a member of the 2019 UGA Board of Visitors and is currently serving on the UGA Foundation Board of Trustees (2020, 2019). Ms. Selvey also acts as a mentor to current UGA students. She is an executive board member at the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors (ACBR) and is a member of the Million Dollar Club and Sponsorship Committees.

Ms. Selvey has been actively engaged in commercial real estate since 1987 and joined Colliers in 2003. She came to Colliers from Richard Bowers & Co., where she was the number one producer in both 2001 and 2002. She became a partner as well as the first female partner in the Colliers Atlanta office in 2005. Ms. Selvey is the head of the Office Services Group in Atlanta.
