COVID GUIDELINES:

ULI Atlanta is working to plan this event around the safety and well-being of our guests. We are following the latest guidelines from the CDC and the Georgia Department of Public Health on COVID-19. With that in mind, we highly encourage attendees to provide proof of vaccination or negative COVID test prior to attending this event. Masks are not required. Anyone who needs to or prefers to wear a mask is encouraged and welcome to do so. Should health indicators change, or heightened risks emerge, indoor masking requirements may be reinstated.

By attending this ULI event, you understand that your participation in this meeting is entirely voluntary and requires attendees to abide by any applicable rules of conduct or local or state laws that may be announced at any time during the meeting. In consideration of the right to attend the meeting, you will assume all risks and accept sole responsibility for any injury (including, but not limited to, personal injury, disability, and death), illness, contracting COVID, damage, loss, claim, liability, or expense, of any kind, that you may experience or incur in connection with attending the meeting. If you are displaying symptoms of COVID-19 and have recently been exposed to anyone who tested positive, we ask that you do not attend the event. Those symptoms include fever or chills, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, muscle or body aches, headache, loss of taste or smell, sore throat, congestion or runny nose, nausea or vomiting, and diarrhea.
