

Urban Land Hawaii Institute

2023 Sponsorship

In addition to receiving prominent visibility to the leading real estate professionals in the state, ULI Hawaii Corporate sponsors receive a number of benefits for their contributions. Additionally, sponsors know that 100% of their funds are going to support ULI Hawaii's local programs, educational activities, and community outreach programs.

About ULI

The Urban Land Institute is the premier real estate educator and convenor in the country. It is unique in that it brings together leaders from across all of the fields of real estate to foster collaboration and problem solving.

ULI's areas of research and education include:

- The economy and capital markets
- Challenges of urbanization and land, including housing, transit, planning & design.
- The built environment and climate, energy & sustainability.

ULI Hawaii has nearly 300 members from the largest landowners, developers, the state's major architecture, law, planning firms, public and elected officials and university educators.

Nearly all of ULI Hawaii's funding is from local sponsorships. Your sponsorship funds support important programs that raise the professional excellence of our land use community, knowledge of our public officials, as well as real estate programs for high school and college students.

At left: Kalani H.S. Students study ULI's 3 week urban re-development problem, UrbanPlan, as classroom facilitator Lucien Wong challenges them to do better.

This acclaimed case study requires students to build housing, including affordable, needed retail, produce jobs, earn a financeable return, create tax revenue, and adhere to market demand.

ULI Hawaii Sponsorship provides all of the funding for classroom supplies and teacher and facilitator training.

The mission of the Urban Land Institute is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide. ULI is a 501(c)(3) educational organization. ULI neither lobbies nor acts as an advocate for any single industry. ULI examines land use issues, impartially reports findings, and convenes forums to find solutions to complex land use problems, collaborating with industry and stakeholder groups worldwide. ULI advocates better land use planning, better growth patterns and better development to improve the overall quality of life in our communities.
