BRAD M. ROSENHEIM

Brad Rosenheim is President/CEO of the Warner Center-based planning and land use consulting firm Rosenheim & Associates, Inc.

Before starting his firm in 1995, Brad served seven years as a policy and planning consultant in the private sector, after having served eight years as deputy to Los Angeles City Councilman Marvin Braude.

Brad has been honored consistently as one of the San Fernando Valley's most influential leaders and over the years has worked with several community-based organizations, including currently serving as Chair of the Valley Industry and Commerce Association and Chair of Homes 4 Families. He is also a longstanding member of the Agoura Hills – Calabasas Community Center Joint Powers Authority.

A graduate of California State University, Northridge, Brad was also the first candidate to graduate from the University of Southern California with a master's degree in public policy with a special certification in city management.

Brad and his wife Devon met while working in Los Angeles City Hall and have two grown children.
