

Robert Jue is a Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Standard Real Estate Investments (“Standard”). Standard is a minority-owned and controlled real estate private equity firm that manages capital on behalf of institutions and allocates joint venture equity to developers. It operates nationally, across property sectors and risk profiles, with an initial focus on development of market-rate attainable housing, and a commitment to improve access to capital for minority and women developers.

Prior to co-founding Standard, Mr. Jue spent 14 years at CBRE Investment Management (“CBRE”) where he most recently served as a Senior Managing Director and Portfolio Manager of the CBRE U.S. Development Partners Fund Series, as well as Head of Development for the Americas. He was actively involved in several initiatives at CBRE, as a member of the Americas Leadership Board and Co-Chair of the Americas ESG Committee.

In addition to his experience at CBRE, Mr. Jue was formerly a member of the Board of Directors of Wood Partners, a national multifamily development company. Outside of work, he is an adventure sports enthusiast. Mr. Jue received a BA in Economics from UCLA.
