

Sinéad Finnerty-Pyne
Marketing Director, Studio One Eleven

Sinéad Finnerty-Pyne is marketing director at Long Beach-based Studio One Eleven, an integrated practice of architecture, urban design, and landscape architecture. Her accomplishments reflect her passion for the arts and design. She brings perspective to her work from her previous experience as Director, Marketing & Business Development at Lorcan O’Herlihy Architects, and as Exhibitions Manager and Assistant Curator at Armory Center for the Arts, Pasadena. She has completed the ULI Los Angeles Women’s Leadership Initiative GROW Mid-Career Mentoring Program. She serves as an advisory board member for the Contemporary Irish Art Center, Los Angeles.

Sinéad earned a Master of Arts Degree in Museum and Curatorial Studies from California State University, Long Beach. She has a bachelor’s degree in Art History, Cum Laude from Loyola Marymount University and studied at University College Dublin, Ireland.