

Biographies

Maisie Short, CFP, CAIA

Managing Director, Global Consultant Relations Team, Manulife Investment Management

Maisie is responsible for managing existing relationships and cultivating new ones with institutional consultants. Prior to joining the firm, she was a managing director at Los Angeles Capital, with a focus on consultant relations, business development, and relationship management. Previously, Maisie was a relationship manager at Wilshire Associates, working directly with Wilshire Funds Management's financial intermediary clients and, earlier in her career, she held positions in marketing and client service with 300 North Capital and Convergent Wealth Advisors (now Pathstone Federal). Maisie is also the immediate past president and co-founder of the Women in Institutional Investments Network, a nonprofit dedicated to advancing and empowering women in the Southern California institutional investment community. She has received a certificate in diversity and inclusion training from Cornell University. Maisie holds the Certified Financial Planner and Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst designations.

Education: B.A., Duke University; M.A., Johns Hopkins University

Joined the company: 2020

Began career: 2004