

Matt Cowles
Senior Superintendent
Hathaway Dinwiddie Construction Company

Matt Cowles began his career at Hathaway Dinwiddie in 1986 and has been in charge of various interior development, renovation, and new construction projects. His experience includes fast-track and on-going operational environment projects. Matt is responsible for all field activities, safety, logistics, scheduling, and monitoring subcontractor performance. He resolves field construction issues with design professionals, and supervises field inspections with local authorities, to ensure quality work from trade employees and compliance with safety programs and practices.