

Carlos Gonzalez

Division President

Clark Construction

Carlos Gonzalez provides executive leadership for more than $1 billion of construction activities in Southern California.

He is responsible for the region's day-to-day operations, business development, and project development, including inception, contract negotiations, and monitoring construction progress.

Throughout his tenure at Clark, Carlos has served in project management, field supervision, and overall leadership roles for clients such as the San Diego Padres, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Delta Airlines, LAX, Walt Disney Imagineering, the State of California, JMI Realty, Host Hotels & Resorts, Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command, the General Services Administration, Veteran Affairs, the University of California, and California State University.

Carlos previously served as general manager of Clark Concrete, Clark's self-perform structural concrete business unit in the Mid-Atlantic.

Carlos earned a bachelor's and master's degree in civil engineering from San Diego State University. He also earned a master's degree in business administration and management at the University of California, San Diego.

Carlos serves on the board of directors of the National ACE Mentor Program and Hope Builders. He is also a member of the Civil Engineering Advisory Board at San Diego State University.