ULI Nashville: Real Estate Outlook 2023

Speaker Bio: Gina Emmanuel, Principal, Centric Architecture

Gina Emmanuel has been a principal at Centric Architecture, a design focused architecture, planning, and interiors firm located in historic North Nashville, for the past 10 years. Originally from South Africa, relocating to Nashville in 1985, she has become more of a native than most with the influx of growth the city has seen.

For the last decade, Centric has focused on community-based projects in the heart of Middle Tennessee's neighborhoods creating unique intentional spaces that instill a compelling sense of place. A few notable projects include the Trolley Barns, Sylvan Supply, Stocking 51, and the Factory of Franklin.

She serves as Commission Chair for the Housing Trust Fund Commission which administers affordable housing grants to local non-profit developers, the President of the NAIOP Nashville Chapter, the President of Catholic Charities of Nashville, and a member of the inaugural steering committee for ULI's Urban Plan program.
