

Tony Giarratana, President
GIARRATANA LLC

Tony Giarratana has been a real estate entrepreneur and developer in downtown Nashville for 39 years. Recognized for his creative leadership in complex urban projects, he pioneered the first high-rise residential projects in Nashville's central business district and SoBro submarkets. Tony earned a degree in Business Administration from the University of South Florida. He serves on the advisory boards of the Nashville Downtown Partnership, Lipscomb University College of Business, Monroe Carrel, Jr. Children's Hospital, Nashville Symphony, and Nashville Zoo. He also founded Premier Parking, Nashville's largest parking services provider. Tony has been married to his wife, Lisa, for 33 years and has a son, Sam, and daughter Kate. Tony and Lisa worship at Harpeth Hills Church of Christ.
