

The Urban Land Institute is a global, member-driven organization comprising nearly 50,000 real estate and urban development professionals dedicated to advancing the Institute's mission: Shape the future of the built environment for transformative impact in communities worldwide.

In July 2024, ULI Nashville expanded into East Tennessee, engaging members and partners and hosting programming in both Chattanooga and Knoxville.

ULI Nashville has twenty-one 2025 East Tennessee Annual Sponsor firms supporting this growth. As of April 2025, ULI Nashville has over 1050 members with over 85 of those in East Tennessee.

In 2024 ULI Nashville hosted eight programs in East Tennessee and is on track to host ten programs in 2025, evenly divided between Chattanooga and Knoxville. This member-led work is guided by an East Tennessee Steering Committee with members from Chattanooga, Knoxville, and Nashville.
