Alex Chambers Bio

As Senior Vice President and Nashville Market Leader of Highwoods Properties, Alex Chambers is responsible for the company's 4.6 million square foot portfolio and new development in Music City. With more than 30 years of commercial real estate and development experience, he oversees all leasing, property management and development activities.

Before joining Highwoods, Alex was Senior Vice President at KDC Real Estate, managing the day-to-day operations of KDC's Atlanta office. A graduate of The University of Georgia, Alex began his career as a banker, specializing in commercial business, including real estate. He went on to attend The University of Georgia School of Law before practicing commercial real estate law in Atlanta with King & Spalding and Parker, Hudson Rainer and Dobbs. Alex then moved on to real estate development in 1999 working with Cousins Properties in Atlanta and Austin, as well as Jamestown and KDC.
