

Giving thanks to our
ULI Minnesota
members and sponsors

Thank You
Very Much

Thank you for being a part of ULI Minnesota's Mission

All of us at ULI Minnesota are so very grateful for the hard work of our members and the generous support of our sponsors. Through your contributions we are able to promote leadership, candid discussion, and best practices even in our changing world. ULI Minnesota is committed to advancing sustainable, equitable, and thriving communities across our region, and we are only successful because of you.

Together we continue to:

- Forge relationships with leaders and decision-makers across diverse disciplines and sectors, including our nationally recognized network of 75+ Mayors.
- Deliver compelling industry insights and best practices on navigating the COVID-19 pandemic and recovery.
- Mobilize for action alongside a robust member network that has generated $2.5M+ in volunteer value since 2015 and hosted 90+ workshops and advisory panels for local governments.
- Collaborate on critical work to increase diversity and inclusion in our local real estate and land use industries.

Wishing you a restful Thanksgiving holiday filled with gratitude!
