

This week at ULI Minnesota...

Go Vote!

Make sure your voice is heard!

Our election is just around the corner, and we want to encourage all of our ULI Minnesota community to get out and vote. Minnesota has one of the most effective and accessible voting systems in the country—let’s use it to make sure we turn out, have our say, and make a difference in this election. This election matters, and your voice matters. Use it!

Last month the Regional Council of Mayors (RCM) heard from Minnesota Secretary of State Steve Simon on the incredible work our state is doing to ensure a safe and fair election. You can read more about that conversation and our other RCM meetings here, or check out the video from Governors of Minnesota, past and present, on how we show up for this election.

For anyone who was planning to vote by mail, there is an urgent alert from Secretary Simon. Last night a court ruling moved up the date for when ballots need to be received in the election offices. As a result, voters are now advised to NOT mail ballots this close to Election Day. Voters may hand deliver a ballot to your local elections office or a designated drop box, or vote early in person. Even if you received a ballot in the mail, you can choose to instead vote in person, early or on November 3. If you choose to drop off your ballot, the deadline to drop off in person is 3pm; deadline for mail or delivery service is 8pm on November 3.

The United States is on pace to have the largest voter turnout in more than a century, and Minnesota has always been among the best in the nation in showing up to the polls. Be a part of this historic turnout!

- If you still have an absentee ballot, return it as soon as possible. DO NOT return it by mail. Voters may hand deliver a ballot to your local elections office or a designated drop box, or vote early in person.
- Find your polling place.
- Find locations for early voting.
- If you have already submitted a ballot by mail, you can track the status of your ballot.
- Minnesota allows you to register to vote at the polls, whether you are voting early or on Election Day with proof of residency.
- If you vote early in person or in the polling place on Election Day, make sure to wear a mask and follow instructions in the polling place to ensure your safety and the safety of the poll workers.
- ALL ballots must be returned to the county elections office by Tuesday, November 3.

Around ULI: Upcoming Events

ULI Washington - Know Your Price: Valuing Black Lives and Property in America's Black Cities - A Conversation with Dr. Andre Perry

11/10/2020 | 11:00AM - 12:30PM CST | REGISTER

Join ULI District Councils Washington, New York, Philadelphia, and Boston for a conversation with Dr. Andre Perry, Fellow at the Brookings Institution, and author of Know Your Price: Valuing Black Lives and Property in America's Black Cities. Using both quantitative research and his own life story, Dr. Perry explores the social and economic consequences of systemic racism that have de-valued Black people, their assets, and communities. Know Your Price establishes a new paradigm for valuing and investing in Black communities with practical solutions for policy makers and city builders.

ULI Los Angeles: Paul R. Williams - Rediscovering an Architectural Icon

11/12/2020 | 7:00PM-8:30PM CST | REGISTER

ULI-LA in partnership with AIA-LA, USC Architecture, Getty Research Institute, and So Cal NOMA present: Paul R. Williams: Rediscovering an Architectural Icon. The archive of renowned architect Paul R. Williams was recently acquired by the Getty Research Institute and the University of Southern California (USC) School of Architecture. More than just an archive of Paul's work, this collection represents a window into the important impact he had on the architectural community, in Los Angeles, and around the world—an impact that only a handful of architects practicing at that time in history can claim. Paul R. Williams was simply in a class of his own: an accomplished architect – and the first licensed Black architect west of the Mississippi - who helped shape the Southern California aesthetic as a leading practitioner of mid-century modern design.

ULI is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion.
