

ULI Minnesota's Young Leaders Group hosts Richfield's Mayor Maria Regan Gonzalez

Wednesday, February 17, 2021 - 12:00-12:45PM CST, via Zoom

Join Richfield's Mayor Maria Regan Gonzalez in a discussion about how public health and racial equity will be key in helping ensure a successful, lasting and equitable recovery from COVID. How can we use this lens to think outside of the box and how will we move forward together? Mayor Gonzalez will kick off the discussion by sharing her areas of passion and expertise: large scale and population level change at the intersection of race, public health and civic leadership at the local level. The remainder of the session is designed for you to ask questions, share your experiences, and learn and network with peers.

This event is hosted by the ULI Minnesota Young Leader Group and is open to everyone! Free for ULI members and $15 nonmembers.

The ULI Minnesota Young Leaders Group invites you to participate in a discussion that will be focused on different real estate topics. An industry leader will kick off the conversation, but each session is designed for you to share your experiences, learn from peers and maybe make a couple of hot takes on a current real estate trend or topic.
