

LEADING INTO THE FUTURE

The nationally recognized Regional Council of Mayors (RCM) is a nonpartisan coalition building civic trust through connected relationships, inquiry, positive intentions, and collective action focused on issues of regional significance.

- Equip mayors for unifying, complex, adaptive leadership
- Exchange of ideas and emerging innovation
- Seek to understand and find the common good
- Foster access, inclusion, diversity, and equity

MEETINGS

Held the second Monday of each month and hosted by Dorsey & Whitney.* Mayors are encouraged to participate on a consistent basis.

*COVID: Until in-person events are possible we are hosting RCM meeting via Zoom.

GOVERNANCE

The RCM operates without a formal legal structure. It is guided by two co-chairs, an RCM Executive Committee, (current and former chairs and the ULI Minnesota RCM Program Director and ULI Minnesota Executive Director), set agendas and recommend leadership positions.

ACTIONS

The RCM, as an informal organization, will not take actions that obligate or act on behalf of participating mayors or their city. From time to time, Mayors and/or their cities will lend their support on matters of regional significance, which have been vetted by the RCM, through resolutions, testimony or letters.

The RCM offers an immediate opportunity to meet and establish relationships with regional mayors. While each RCM city is unique, the collective sharing of resources, ideas, and experiences helps everyone. Mayors and cities are being asked to take on more in this time of new localism. The collaboration, rapport, trust, and support from other mayors, along with content experts provided by ULI Minnesota, is invaluable. We can accomplish so much more when we work together.
