ULI New York YLG

Fall Update

Dear ULI New York,

The Young Leader's Group is back from our summer hiatus and as your new YLG Executive Co-Chairs we are thrilled to have hit the ground running. This enthusiasm is in thanks to our new cohort of YLG committee leaders and the energy of our growing YLG membership. We are thrilled to kick off our Fall programming. This season will hold exciting and informative programs tailored for young leaders.

On that note, we will be hosting our first event of the fall season on September 26th. This sold out tour of the Alloy Block master plan, encompasses the development of office space, educational facilities, and affordable housing in Brooklyn. Also coming up soon is a ULI Fall Mixer Happy Hour, we hope you were lucky enough to sign up for this sold out event. If you weren't able to snag a spot for these two great programs, stay tuned for more upcoming events by reading your weekly ULI updates and checking the ULI New York Events Calendar.

ULI's Fall Meeting will be hosted in Los Angeles this year from October 30th through November 2nd where members across the globe will come together to share best practices, build their network and exchange ideas. Along with ULI-wide programming, YLG Americas will provide young leader specific programming and networking opportunities for young leaders to learn and connect. Head to <https://fall.uli.org/> for more info on the Fall Meeting and to take your membership bi-coastal.

Thank you, to all the new YLG volunteer leaders who have recently signed up for an event, joined a committee or applied to be a part of the mentorship program. We appreciate your time, leadership and the positive impact you all add to New York's real estate industry.

For more information please visit our local YLG webpage, follow @ULInewyorkYLG on Instagram, join our ULI NY Young Leader's Group LinkedIn group to connect or post career opportunities.
