

Millburn Brownfields Redevelopment Project

Located at 132 Millburn Avenue in Millburn Township is a .293 acres/16,402 square foot triangular lot currently occupied by a closed gasoline service station. The service station has stood vacant since 2009 when it was damaged by a fire. The site is located at the township's gateway. Its current condition is an eyesore, but its future use can be a community asset.