

Oscar Uranga is a Principal at IMG Construction Management, a local consulting firm offering a variety of real estate development professional services. He runs the Development Services division for IMG, which support clients with advisory and project management services, as early as acquisition due diligence and through entitlements, permit issuance, contract with a GC and or closing on financing. He is also the Founder of Unison Communities, a private real estate development firm focused on infill projects in Southern California.