The Urban Land Institute's mission is to shape the future of the built environment for transformative impact in communities worldwide.

About ULI Sacramento

Annual Sponsors make it possible for ULI Sacramento to perform its mission. Your support funds our efforts to provide active connections between interdisciplinary professionals, inspire best practices, educate the next generation of industry professionals, and lead in solving community and real estate challenges the Sacramento Region faces.

ULI Sacramento's core work, made possible through annual sponsorships, includes:

Building Healthy & Equitable Places

Shaping projects and places in ways that improve the health of people and communities. Making health and social equity mainstream considerations in real estate practices

Climate Resilience & Innovation (CR&I)

Building resilience in our built environment to the impacts of mounting physical, social, and economic challenges from climate risks

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI)

Promoting diversity and racial equity in our membership, building a diverse pipeline of industry professionals, and creating a more equitable Sacramento Region

Housing

Facilitating access to leading experts and best practices in housing policy to provide communities with tailored solutions to issues that affect housing

Technical Advisory Panels

Offering expert advice to local governments, public agencies, and/or nonprofits facing complex land use and real estate challenges in the Sacramento Region

UrbanPlan

Delivering an engaging program to local high schools, universities, public officials and communities that teach the fundamental forces that affect development in our communities

Women's Leadership Initiative (WLI)

Promoting the advancement of women as leaders, raising the number of women serving in leadership positions, and increasing visibility across the industry and within ULI

Young Leaders Group (YLG)

Mentorship and targeted programming to deepen knowledge, build relationships, and foster thoughtful development practices
